Health

Advocacy

Roger Baldwin Foundation of the ACLU, Inc. - $25,000
The ACLU of Illinois works to protect and extend freedom, liberty and equality to all through integrated advocacy efforts that combine litigation, legislative and regulatory advocacy, public education and engagement. The Women’s and Reproductive Rights Project (WRRP) facilitates women’s full participation in society by safeguarding the right to medical privacy and bodily autonomy; removing the stigma that surrounds abortion, pregnancy, and lactation; and advancing policies that recognize the full range of reproductive health care—from contraception, to abortion, to childbirth—as health care.

Advocacy and Direct Service

Affinity Community Services - $20,000
Affinity Community Services is a social justice organization serving the needs of the Black LGBTQ community of Chicago with a particular focus on Black women, and is one of the few organizations created and run by Black LGBTQ women. Founded to bring visibility and voice to Black people in LGBTQ communities and LGBTQ people in Black communities, Affinity operates from the South Side of Chicago and has served thousands of people over its 20-year history.

HEART Women and Girls - $20,000
HEART Women and Girls promotes sexual health literacy and sexual violence prevention in Muslim communities through health education, advocacy, research and training. HEART makes accurate, culturally-sensitive sexual health and sexual violence information accessible through both in-person interactive workshops and a virtual resource center. HEART offers advocacy to survivors to direct them to the information and support they need to move toward healing and justice. HEART also offers trainings to build the capacity of leaders, professionals and organizations to better serve the sexual health needs of Muslim communities.

Direct Service

Chicago Women’s Health Center - $25,000
Chicago Women’s Health Center (CWHC) facilitates the empowerment of women and trans people by providing access to health care and health education in a respectful environment where people pay what they can afford. CWHC offers primary care that integrates mental health, gynecological care, trans health care, counseling, alternative insemination and acupuncture. CWHC also works in Chicago schools to provide youth with comprehensive sexual health and healthy relationship classes.

Midwest Access Project - $20,000
Midwest Access Project (MAP) envisions a society in which every person has access to patient-centered, quality reproductive health care within their community. As a Midwestern hub for training and advocacy, MAP fills gaps in medical education and clinical training, reducing barriers to care and improving access to reproductive health care by training providers in comprehensive sexual and reproductive health including contraception, pregnancy options counseling, miscarriage and abortion.

Planned Parenthood of Illinois - $15,000
Planned Parenthood of Illinois (PPIL) provides compassionate, comprehensive reproductive health care, education and advocacy. PPIL’s Teen Birth Control Access Campaign is a multi-faceted, youth-driven outreach and service delivery campaign to reduce unintended teen pregnancy through education, improving access to birth control, and a proactive policy agenda to protect the ability of all Illinoisans to access confidential, affordable birth control.

RefugeeOne - $15,000
RefugeeOne creates opportunity for refugees fleeing war, terror and persecution to build new lives of safety, dignity and self-reliance. The Women’s Health Project strengthens the mental, physical and social well-being of refugee women and girls. The program provides participants with therapeutic services, medical and intensive case management and opportunities to build a sense of community.

Freedom from Violence Advocacy

Chicago Alliance Against Sexual Exploitation - $20,000
Chicago Alliance Against Sexual Exploitation (CAASE) addresses the institutions and individuals that perpetrate, profit from, or support sexual exploitation, focusing specifically on sexual assault and prostitution. CAASE seeks to end sexual exploitation through free legal services, policy and legislative change, prevention education and community engagement efforts.

Chicago Workers’ Collaborative - $10,000
Chicago Workers’ Collective (CWC) organizes and empowers low-wage temp laborers to take action and protect their rights. CWC works to build community power by bridging diverse communities and organizing across sectors to end gender violence, racial discrimination and economic exploitation. CWC combines economic justice, community engagement and healing justice through leadership training and community building initiatives, with a particular focus on immigrant communities.

National Immigrant Justice Center - $25,000
The National Immigrant Justice Center (NIJC) ensures due process and human rights protection for immigrants, refugees and asylum seekers. NIJC leverages a network of 1,600 pro bono attorneys to provide legal services for 10,000 individuals each year. The Gender Justice Initiative (GJI) fights to dismantle policies that disproportionately affect immigrant families, women and LGBTQ immigrants.

Smart Policy Works (SPW) - $20,000
Smart Policy Works believes sustainable systems change is possible through cross-sector partnerships and inclusive public policymaking. The Women’s Justice Institute (WJI) convenes a statewide task force working to decrease the women’s prison population in Illinois; reduce the harm caused to women, children and families involved in the justice system; and promote improved health and well-being for those touched by the justice system.

Advocacy and Direct Service

Arab American Family Services (AAFS) - $15,000
The mission of Arab-American Family Services (AAFS) is to empower and enhance the lives of Arab and Muslim people. AAFS addresses the many unmet needs and concerns of Arab American and other immigrant families in more than 30 communities in the South Suburban Chicagoland area. AAFS’ Domestic Violence Intervention and Prevention Program provides direct services, advocacy and outreach for survivors of domestic violence. AAFS engages mainstream organizations to build their capacity to work with domestic violence survivors by providing training in the Arab American Culture, Islamic religion, and immigrant and refugee needs.

Between Friends - $20,000
Between Friends envisions a world without domestic violence, where all relationships are equitable, safe and just. Between Friends works to break the cycle of domestic abuse through crisis intervention, prevention and education services serving thousands of adults and youth every year. To ensure that outreach is responsive, healing, and effective, Between Friends connects with and listens to survivors of abuse. Between Friends invites individuals, families and communities to join the movement to end domestic violence.

Chicago Community Bond Fund (CCBF) - $15,000
Chicago Community Bond Fund (CCBF) pays bond for individuals charged with crimes in Cook County, educates the public about the role of bond in the justice system, and advocates for the abolition of money bond. CCBF prioritizes assistance for those most likely to experience trauma while incarcerated, including LGBTQI and gender non-conforming people, Black women and mothers. CCBF is committed to building long-term relationships and organizing with people most directly impacted by criminalization and policing.

Domestic Violence Legal Clinic/The Family Defense Center- $35,000
Domestic Violence Legal Clinic (DVLC) provides skilled, compassionate legal representation to survivors of domestic violence. In addition to legal aid, DVLC connects survivors to necessary resources such as emotional support and safety planning. The Family Defense Center (FDC) serves parents and caregivers through legal services, policy initiatives and collaborative projects. DVLC will integrate FDC's direct legal services into its Extended Services Division. FDC policy efforts form the foundation of systemic advocacy and reform focused on gender-based violence and the child welfare system.

HANA Center - $15,000
HANA Center empowers Korean American, immigrant, and multiethnic communities through social services, education, and community organizing to advance human rights. The Womxn Moving Forward Together (WMFT) program takes an integrated and multidisciplinary approach to advance both gender and economic justice. WMFT will focus on a collective empowerment model, building immigrant womxn survivors' financial capacity and wealth while pursuing community accountability and systemic change to advance human rights.

KAN-WIN - $25,000
KAN-WIN empowers survivors of gender-based violence, with a particular focus on Asian immigrant communities. KAN-WIN’s mission is to eradicate all forms of violence against women, including domestic violence and sexual assault, by empowering Asian American survivors and engaging the community through culturally competent services, community education and advocacy.

Mikva Challenge - $19,000
Mikva Challenge develops youth to be informed, empowered, and active citizens and community leaders by engaging youth in action civics, an authentic and transformative learning process built on youth voice and youth expertise. The Young Women’s Leadership Council (YWLC) at Mikva Challenge builds the skills and leadership potential of young women while providing a platform for citywide advocacy. The YWLC directly connects young women from under-resourced communities with women in positions of leadership, and creates a community of support that empowers its members to lead on the issues that affect them.

Mujeres Latinas en Acción - $15,000
Mujeres Latinas en Acción empowers survivors of violence to heal, thrive and become leaders. Mujeres Latinas en Acción brings cultural competency and expertise rooted in empowerment to healing services for survivors of domestic and sexual violence, including therapy, counseling, legal and medical case management. Community education and consultation services aim to improve responsiveness to and prevent domestic and sexual violence.

Resilience (formerly Rape Victim Advocates) - $25,000
Resilience is committed to the healing and empowerment of sexual assault survivors through non-judgmental crisis intervention counseling, individual and group trauma therapy, and medical and legal advocacy in the Chicago metropolitan area. Resilience provides public education and institutional advocacy to improve the treatment of sexual assault survivors and to effect policy change. Its work addresses the entire spectrum of sexual violence, including assault, harassment, abuse and prevention, with an additional focus on public education and institutional advocacy.

South Suburban Family Shelter - $15,000
South Suburban Family Shelter (SSFS) provides counseling, criminal and civil court advocacy, medical advocacy, emergency shelter and transitional housing, financial assistance, school-based prevention programs, abuser intervention and a 24-hour hotline for survivors of domestic violence. All programs are offered in both English and Spanish.

Direct Service
Apna Ghar, Inc. - $20,000
Apna Ghar, Inc. provides holistic and culturally sensitive services to survivors of gender-based violence across immigrant communities in the metropolitan Chicago area. Apna Ghar offers a 24-hour crisis line, emergency shelter, transitional housing, counseling services and legal advocacy. Services are designed to minimize the socio-cultural, linguistic, and legal barriers that prevent immigrant women from seeking help. In addition to direct service, Apna Ghar advocates for systems change at the policy level.

BUILD, Inc. - $15,000
BUILD, Inc. engages over 6,500 youth annually in efforts to escape gang violence and become leaders in their communities in five Chicago neighborhoods—Austin, Garfield Park, Humboldt Park, Hermosa and Bronzeville. The BUILDing Girls 2 Women (BG2W) program invites girls with previous involvement in gangs or the justice system to participate in mentoring and counseling sessions. Through intensive group and individual support to address trauma, prevent participation in crime and violence, and develop self-esteem, self-efficacy and social-emotional health, BG2W teaches important skills like teamwork, anger management and establishing healthy relationships, while creating a 'BG2W Sisterhood' that continues long after the core program is completed.
Center for Advancing Domestic Peace - $10,000
The Center for Advancing Domestic Peace works to stop domestic violence where it starts by helping those who abuse take responsibility for their behavior, create healthier relationships and strengthen their community. The Center is the only Chicago-area agency dedicated to rehabilitating individuals who have abused an intimate partner through evidence-based, culturally responsive services rooted in feminist principles. The Center also plays a key role in strengthening the coordinated community response to domestic violence through facilitation of training for victim services and law enforcement professionals as well as engagement in the Chicago Battered Women’s Network and other coalitional efforts.

Connections for Abused Women and their Children - $10,000
Connections for Abused Women and their Children (CAWC) provides emergency response and comprehensive domestic violence services that enable survivors to increase their safety and establish independence. CAWC currently operates four programs at five locations throughout the city.

Family Rescue - $15,000
Family Rescue is dedicated to eliminating domestic violence in the Chicago community by providing comprehensive support services and shelter to survivors of domestic violence, engaging in advocacy to promote future systems change and encouraging prevention through community education.

Lake County Crisis Center (A Safe Place) - $15,000
A Safe Place is the sole provider of services exclusively addressing domestic violence and human trafficking in Lake County, Illinois. A Safe Place offers comprehensive services that provide a safety net to meet the immediate and long-term needs of survivors of domestic violence and human trafficking. Services include a 24-hour crisis line, emergency shelter, transitional and permanent housing, counseling, advocacy, life skills training and community education. A Safe Place helps survivors and their families achieve self-sufficiency and prevent future violence.

Latinos Progresando - $20,000
Latinos Progresando (LP) delivers high-quality information and resources for people to build secure, healthy and productive lives. LP runs the largest Latino-led immigration legal services program in Illinois, including an initiative serving immigrant victims of domestic violence. LP’s VAWA project provides high-quality, free legal support for immigrant survivors of domestic violence in order to help them achieve independent immigration status, obtain a work permit, pursue lawful employment and gain economic independence.

Life Span - $15,000
Life Span combines civil representation, criminal court advocacy, and counseling to provide a permanent solution to domestic and sexual violence. Its integrated service delivery uses an empowerment model to help clients create a plan for safety and a plan for services.

Sarah’s Inn - $15,000
Sarah’s Inn provides comprehensive domestic services to survivors and responds to the needs of families already affected by violence, while working proactively to prevent future violence. Sarah’s Inn approaches domestic violence as a societal issue that demands a holistic response and works to break the cycle of violence for future generations.

UCAN - $15,000
UCAN is an anchor organization for youth who have experienced trauma, working to build strong youth and families through compassionate healing, education and empowerment. The Phenomenal Woman female mentoring program brings together young women who have experienced trauma for group mentoring workshops in order to strengthen their self-esteem and self-image and to develop healthy and supportive relationships.

Youth Outlook - $10,000
Youth Outlook celebrates, empowers, advocates and provides services for LGBTQ+ youth and their families, friends and communities. The Healthy Relationships for LGBTQ+ Youth project facilitates discussion and education around healthy relationships, sexual harassment and assault, and the continuum of violence with a focus on the needs of LGBTQ+ youth.

YWCA of Evanston/North Shore - $15,000
YWCA of Evanston/North Shore is a multicultural women’s organization dedicated to eliminating racism, empowering women, and promoting justice and dignity for all. The Domestic Violence Services program allows survivors to access emergency intervention services, including a crisis hotline and emergency housing, as well as trauma-informed counseling and legal services.

Englewood Women’s Initiative
Accion Chicago - $23,500
Accion Chicago provides small business owners with the capital, coaching and connections they need to meet their goals. Accion works in areas with limited economic opportunity to ensure that entrepreneurs have access to the support they need to grow their businesses, generate income for their families and uplift their communities. Accion’s provides one-on-one coaching and Credit Builder Loans to help clients build or establish credit while growing their businesses.

All Chicago Making Homelessness History - $20,000

All Chicago Making Homelessness History provides financial assistance via its Emergency Fund to provide assistance with needs such as rent, security deposits and basic home items – as well as employment related necessities such as child care, transportation and professional attire.

Chicago Women in Trades - $20,000

Chicago Women in Trades (CWIT) provides career education and training to prepare women to enter fields such as welding and construction. All participants receive case management, job placement assistance and access to other services as needed.

Demoiselle 2 Femme, NFP - $19,000

Demoiselle 2 Femme (D2F) provides holistic services, education, instruction and training to girls ages 13-19 on the far South Side of Chicago and south suburbs. D2F will host pop-up youth development workshops on the power of choice, decision making and establishing life/career goals, including presentations from EWI partners on their programs and services.

Family Rescue - $20,000

Through advocacy, social service provision and health care, Family Rescue works to break the cycle of domestic violence. Family Rescue provides screening services and assists women affected by domestic violence with basic needs such as transitional housing, food, clothing and financial assistance.

Jane Addams Resource Corporation - $15,000

Jane Addams Resource Corporation (JARC) offers adult education and job training in three manufacturing tracks: Welding, Computer Numerical Control and Press Brake. JARC provides free technical manufacturing training and job placement services to women participating in the Englewood Women’s Initiative. All trainees receive industry-recognized credentials and ongoing job placement and coaching support.

Kennedy King College: Dawson Technical Institute (DTI) - $12,000
The Dawson Technical Institute at Kennedy King College provides industry-validated training in the construction and utility trades. DTI educates students in both a classroom and a shop setting. Students are equipped with technical skills as well as basic job safety and ethics training. DTI students are encouraged to utilize Kennedy King College’s myriad support services.

Lawyer’s Committee for Better Housing - $20,000

Lawyer’s Committee for Better Housing (LCBH) protects the rights of women facing eviction through direct services, emergency funding and advocacy. LCBH will work with EWI participants and partner organizations through its Rentervention program, a new mobile, chat-box application that connects renters to information and advice relating to tenant-landlord issues. Rentervention supports self-advocacy and can connect renters with a pro-bono legal assistance. LCBH attorneys will provide a continuum of free legal services to EWI participants who are facing unjust evictions, unsafe housing conditions, and/or are living in a building that is in foreclosure.

Metropolitan Family Services - $24,500

Metropolitan Family Services and its Financial Opportunities Center based at Kennedy-King College will provide career services, including skills assessment, job readiness skills, job placement and transportation assistance; financial literacy, including one-to-one coaching, budgeting and assistance accessing public benefits; and education, with a particular emphasis on building employment bridges into healthcare and certified medical administrative assistant training.

Teamwork Englewood - $25,000

Teamwork Englewood (TWE) offers workplace development, job placement, and re-entry services. Utilizing its extensive experience in community organizing and its role as the lead agency of the Englewood Quality of Life Plan, it will continue to integrate EWI into the ongoing activities of the Quality of Life Plan Jobs and Economic Development task force. Teamwork Englewood will offer workforce development and job placement services to all women as well as reentry services to women with barriers to employment, housing and health services due to previous felony convictions.

Polk Bros. Foundation Fund for Emerging Organizations

Brave Space Alliance - $6,075

Brave Space Alliance (BSA) is a social justice collective run by and for transgender women and gender-nonconforming people of color. BSA strives to educate and empower each other through sharing skills, knowledge and resources to generate opportunities, and to support community members organizing around their experiences... with racism, economic injustice, transmisogyny, ableism, immigration, incarceration and other intersecting oppressions.

Chicago Period Project - $2,000
Chicago Period Project (CPP) collects and distributes menstrual products to low-income Chicagoans. CPP believes menstruating people should be able to experience their period with dignity through reliable access to menstrual products. CPP educates Chicagoans on how menstruation stigma increases racial, ethnic and gender disparities in health.

Gyrls in the H.O.O.D. Foundation - $2,875
Gyrls in the H.O.O.D. aims to reduce the rate of sexually transmitted infections and unplanned pregnancies among girls in under-resourced communities. The eight-week “Degrees B4 Diapers” program provides comprehensive, age-appropriate and evidence-based sex education, as well as access to reproductive health care.

Sisters in Cinema - $2,050
Sisters in Cinema aims to entertain, educate, develop, and celebrate Black women media-makers. The Black Lesbian Writers’ Room creates media that explores the lives of Black queer women and supports the development of Black women writers based in Chicago.

Sisters Network Chicago Chapter - $2,000
Sisters Network Chicago Chapter (SNCC) champions the health and well-being of Black women throughout Chicago, particularly on the South Side and in south suburban Cook County. SNCC works to increase access to and utilization of high quality, culturally sensitive medical care through advocacy, education and support efforts. The Breast Cancer Assistance Program (BCAP) provides financial assistance to breast cancer survivors in active treatment including surgery, chemotherapy and/or radiation.

Giving Councils and Giving Circle of CFW

North Shore Giving Circle

Community Organizing and Family Issues - $10,700
Community Organizing and Family Issues (COFI) develops the leadership and organizing capacity of low-income parents of color, primarily mothers and grandmothers, in order to impact change on behalf of women, children and families at all levels of public life. “Strengthening Mother Leaders for Equity in Evanston” engages low-income mothers of color in campaigns that address the root causes of poverty to strengthen family economic security.
Center for Independent Futures - $10,000
The Center for Independent Futures (CIF) creates person-centered programs giving individuals with disabilities and families skills and opportunities to realize full lives. CIF designs and implements supports for women with intellectual and developmental disabilities who have experienced sexual and physical assault. This project will create organizational change focused on increasing disability-responsiveness and provide organizational training specific to the issues and needs of women with disabilities experiencing sexual violence.

Fenix Family Health Center - $10,000
Fenix Family Health Center serves low-income Latinx individuals through high-quality healthcare that deeply respects patients’ values and culture. Fenix approaches treatment with an understanding of the stresses that accompany immigration, including adjustment to a new language and culture, poverty and loss of extended family. Fenix offers intensive health education programs especially for Latina women.

North Suburban Legal Aid - $10,000
North Suburban Legal Aid offers pro bono legal services in the areas of domestic violence, immigration and housing. The Clinic has two attorneys who represent survivors of domestic violence in Orders of Protection, divorce, child custody and child support.

United Way of Lake County - $10,000
United Way of Lake County’s (UWLC) mission is to unite leadership and resources to create lasting change that will improve lives in Lake County. Home Visiting delivers early intervention services to the homes of families with infants and preschool-age children who are struggling with poverty and who have limited access to health and community services.

Western Suburbs Giving Circle
360 Youth Services - $15,000
360 Youth Services takes a “360” comprehensive approach in identifying its clients’ challenges and marshaling appropriate resources to help youth reach their full potential. The 360 Transitional Living Program provides young women struggling with homelessness with safe accommodation, health care and strategies for a successful transition following the program’s end.

Teen Parent Connection - $10,000
Teen Parent Connection (TPC) offers teenage parents the necessary support, information and resources to improve the overall health of their family and move towards self-sufficiency. TPC’s evidence-based Pathways to Prevention programs address both components of its mission: providing support and resources to adolescent mothers and fathers, and preventing teen pregnancy through reproductive health education. Its direct support services promote the physical, mental, and emotional health and well-being of teenage parents and their children through the delivery of doula services, perinatal education, home visiting, parent groups and counseling services. TPC also delivers primary prevention education using a model that equips middle and high school students with the education they need to make informed decisions about their sexual health.

LGBTQ Giving Council

Affinity Community Services - $4,100

Affinity Community Services is a social justice organization serving the Black LGBTQ community with a particular focus on Black women. The COIL program is a community-based intervention to engage peer groups in conversations about HIV education and prevention.

Sisters in Cinema - $4,100

Sisters in Cinema aims to entertain, educate, develop, and celebrate Black women media-makers. The Black Lesbian Writers’ Room creates media that explores the lives of Black queer lesbians and supports the development of Black women writers based in Chicago.

The National LGBTQ Workers Center - $2,500

The National LGBTQ Workers Center is an organization for LGBTQ workers to stand up to workplace discrimination and fight for economic justice. The National LGBTQ Workers Center facilitates multiple forums for LGBTQ workers in Chicago to come together, learn from one another and organize for a better tomorrow.

Women United Giving Council

A Long Walk Home (ALWH) - $1,500

A Long Walk Home uses art to empower young people to end violence against women and girls. The Girl/Friends Leadership Institute is the only program in Chicago that empowers teen girls (12-18) of color to use art and youth leadership to create campaigns to end gender violence in their schools and communities.

Young Women’s Giving Council

Brave Space Alliance - $5,750

Brave Space Alliance (BSA) is a social justice collective run by and for transgender women and gender-nonconforming people of color. BSA strives to educate and empower each other through sharing skills, knowledge, and resources to generate opportunities and to support community members organizing around their experiences with racism, economic injustice, transmisogyny, ableism, immigration, incarceration and other intersecting oppressions.

Global Girls - $5,000
Global Girls provides arts education, rigorous theatre and dance training, and presentation opportunities to equip youth of color with capacities that nurture their individual growth and inspire them to use their talents for positive change in their communities. Four “Fearless Girls Momentum” conferences will use theatre games and practices to teach girls assertive communication skills, self-advocacy, peer support, science-based sexual health and nontraditional careers for women.

Gyrls in the H.O.O.D. Foundation (H.O.O.D.) - $5,750
Gyrls in the H.O.O.D. aims to reduce the rate of sexually transmitted infections and unplanned pregnancies among girls in under-resourced communities. The eight-week “Degrees B4 Diapers” program provides comprehensive, age-appropriate and evidence-based sex education, as well as access to reproductive health care.

Donor Advised Funds

Evelyn Appell Lipkin Endowed Fund

Syrian Community Network - $1,500
Syrian Community Network (SCN) helps Syrian refugees adjust to their new homes and build bridges between newly arrived refugees and communities. SCN stabilizes and secures families through access to housing, social services, education, food security, psychosocial services and health care resources. As the voice of Syrian refugees, SCN advocacy efforts locally and nationally include championing refugee resettlement, dismantling barriers to resettlement, and stabilizing and procuring support for refugees. DAF funds support SCN as they rebuild their office after a fire in their building.

Fay Clayton Donor Advised Fund

Planned Parenthood of Illinois - $5,000
Planned Parenthood of Illinois (PPIL) provides compassionate, comprehensive reproductive health care, education and advocacy.

Roger Baldwin Foundation of the ACLU - $10,000
The ACLU of Illinois works to protect and extend freedom, liberty, and equality to all through integrated advocacy efforts that combine litigation, legislative and regulatory advocacy, public education and engagement. The Women’s and Reproductive Rights
Project (WRRP) facilitate women’s full participation in society by safeguarding the right to medical privacy and bodily autonomy; removing the stigma that surrounds abortion, pregnancy, and lactation; and advancing policies that recognize the full range of reproductive health care—from contraception, to abortion, to childbirth—as health care.

Syrian Community Network - $500
Syrian Community Network (SCN) helps Syrian refugees adjust to their new homes and build bridges between newly arrived refugees and communities. SCN stabilizes and secures families through access to housing, social services, education, food security, psychosocial services and health care resources. As the voice of Syrian refugees, SCN advocacy efforts locally and nationally include championing refugee resettlement, dismantling barriers to resettlement, and stabilizing and procuring support for refugees. DAF funds support SCN as they rebuild their office after a fire in their building.

Nancy M. Goodman Donor Advised Fund
Syrian Community Network - $1,000
Syrian Community Network (SCN) helps Syrian refugees adjust to their new homes and build bridges between newly arrived refugees and communities. SCN stabilizes and secures families through access to housing, social services, education, food security, psychosocial services and health care resources. As the voice of Syrian refugees, SCN advocacy efforts locally and nationally include championing refugee resettlement, dismantling barriers to resettlement, and stabilizing and procuring support for refugees. DAF funds support SCN as they rebuild their office after a fire in their building.

The Patricia R. McMillen Fund
Life Span - $5,000
Life Span combines civil representation, criminal court advocacy, and counseling to provide a permanent solution to domestic and sexual violence. Its integrated service delivery uses an empowerment model to help clients create a plan for safety and a plan for services.